CSE142 Lecture Questions for Monday, 3/8/21, section A

Time (e.g., 12:45)	Question	Answer
	Just to clarify, participating in the critter tournament is optional ? Ok thanks !	Yes, completely optional.
	Have you created a critter that was undefeated? I just thought after this many years, you'd have created like a monster critter that no student could beat.	I don't think it's possible to have a critter that would be undefeated. There is an element of luck in terms of what combination of critters end up in the world and different critters do better or worse depending on the combination of critters they compete against.
