Write two different representations for the Rectangle ADT in the starter code below, including abstraction functions for each representation.

Write your class specification below

```java
public class Rectangle {
    // Your fields for your representation go below
}
```
Write your class specification below
/*
 */
public class Rectangle {
    Your fields for your representation go below
}
}