

Figure 4.1: Normalized head with landmarks. The geometric method finds the points marked with \star . The points marked with \triangle are found using the deformation method and compared with the ground truth.